

HAVE WE MET? GET TO KNOW PAYWORKS AT THE 2019 HRPA TRADE SHOW

January 30, 2019 – On January 30-February 1, 2019, Payworks will participate as a Session Sponsor and exhibitor at the Human Resources Professionals Association (HRPA) 2019 Annual Conference & Trade Show. The conference takes place at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre and approximately 4,500 HR professionals from across the country are expected to attend.

Featuring over 160 conference sessions and 250 Trade Show exhibitors, the HRPA

Annual Conference and Trade Show is the largest human resources conference in Canada and the second largest in the world.

Payworks will participate as an exhibitor at the Trade Show, which runs all three days. From our booth (#931), we will highlight our integrated HR offering along with our suite of workforce management solutions under the theme Hello, my name is Payworks! Payworks will also showcase TANDEM, the only real-time integration of payroll and benefits for Canadian businesses and our powerful Workforce Analytics tool that enables users to evaluate their organizations' performance at a glance and transform their workforce data into true business intelligence.

Payworks is sponsoring Justin Shemeley's session on Leveraging Strategic Workforce Planning to Have a Stronger Voice in the Boardroom at 11 am on January 30, and the session attendees will receive a Payworks lunch bag filled with the all the goodies needed on your first day at a new job. Conference delegates are invited to participate in Payworks' daily contests to win one of four prize packs, including a $50 donation to the winner's charity of choice. This year's grand prize from Payworks includes gift cards totalling $500 as well as a matching donation to a charity of the winner's choice.

Follow Payworks on Twitter and Instagram (@PayworksInc) and Facebook (@Payworks) and use the hashtags #himynameispayworks and #hrsnewbestfriend to stay in the loop as we announce more event details and post photos throughout the Trade Show.
