

Payworks Named One of Canada's Best Managed Companies

WINNIPEG – MARCH 2014 – Payworks is excited to announce that it was a winner of Canada's Best Managed Companies program in 2012 and has Requalified in 2013 to maintain its status as a Best Managed company. Requalified members are repeat winners that retain the Best Managed designation for up to two additional years, subject to annual operational and financial renew.

"We are honoured to have been recognized, once again, among Canada's Best Managed Companies. Payworks' growth and success is a result of the hard work and dedication of each team member, and the continued support of our partners and clients," said Barb Gamey, President and CEO of Payworks, a national workforce management solutions provider.

With 150 employees and more than 10,000 clients, Payworks' growth is in large part due to its customer-centric service model, its proprietary suite of online workforce management solutions, and to its corporate culture. In an industry that routinely sees a lot of turnover both of clients and employees, Payworks has created a culture that emphasizes collaboration and camaraderie, and that encourages cultivating long-lasting relationships with customers.

"Today's marketplace is not just about the investment in the product; it is also about the investment in the people. Payworks invests in their team to build up a strong and stable company. Canada's Best Managed Companies carries this attribute and we are pleased to say Payworks is one of this year's recipients." John Hughes, National Leader of Canada's Best Managed Companies and Managing Partner, Growth Enterprises, Deloitte.
