

PAYWORKS CORPORATE CUP ON MAY 27

May 26, 2017 – Payworks is set to cheer on the Vancouver Whitecaps FC and take part in the Payworks Corporate Cup, a fun post-match 6 vs. 6 co-ed corporate tournament at BC Place on May 27, 2017.

The Payworks Corporate Cup is a three game round-robin recreational tournament with winners advancing to the championship round. The tournament will kick-off following the completion of the 'Caps vs. D.C. United match. Payworks is participating in the tournament with a team – look for the white jerseys on the field and in the stands during the game.

Payworks announced its position as the Official Workforce Management Solutions Provider and Partner of Vancouver Whitecaps FC in January 2016. This is the second year Payworks has sponsored the Corporate Cup event.

Vancouver Whitecaps FC is one of the longest standing professional soccer clubs in North America, originally founded in 1974. Since 2011, the club has played in Major League Soccer (MLS), the top tier of professional soccer in the United States and Canada.
